Requested conduct at the live video conference

All participants will be muted at the start of the conference, and will have the ability to unmute in order to ask questions.

Please turn off the ring feature on all cellular phones and office telephones. There should be no sounds emanating from dogs barking or noisy children in the background.

Texting and checking emails is permitted during the conference.

If you wish to ask a question please raise your hand and be recognized by the host. It probably is not a good idea to have 40+ participants all speaking at once.

If for any reason you are unable to participate in the conference, you may request a recording of the conference; or a credit, transfer, or refund will be provided.

Disclaimer: A live video and audio feed of all participants during the conference will be recorded. We reserve the exclusive right to sell the broadcast of the recorded conference at a later date which may contain a video and audio recording of all participants. By participating in this conference, you hereby agree to these terms and conditions. This conference is not intended to provide legal advice with respect to particular client situations.
