NTI 2027 CONFERENCE

STRESA
Lake Maggiore, Italy
VILLA & PALAZZO AMINTA
AUGUST 1-8, 2027

STRESA AND VILLA & PALAZZO AMINTA

Stresa is a classic, elegant resort town on the shore of Lake Maggiore in Piedmont, northern Italy. Famous for its Belle Époque architecture, grand hotels and panoramic views of the Alps, it is the gateway to the lake and its islands.

Just minutes by boat from Stresa are the Borromean Islands: Isola Bella, home to the Borromeo family's Baroque palace, art collections and terraced Italian gardens; Isola Madre, with its botanical gardens; and Isola dei Pescatori, a traditional fishing village. Nearby lakeside towns include Baveno, Verbania, Arona and Orta San Giulio on neighboring Lake Orta. Farther afield, Lake Como offers mountain scenery, historic villas and gardens, and Bellagio's cobbled lanes, boutiques and waterfront cafés. Lake Garda, Italy's largest lake, is about two hours away, with its vineyards and historic towns such as Sirmione and Riva del Garda.

Villa & Palazzo Aminta is one of Italy's great hotels, sitting on the scenic lakeside road that runs from Arona to the Swiss border, overlooking the Borromean Gulf on the Piedmont shore of Lake Maggiore. This luxury resort offers one of the most elegant settings on the lake. Guests can stroll through the hotel's lush gardens, hike in the surrounding mountains or unwind in the spa, and evenings bring candlelit dinners at the hotel's restaurants.

The hotel has a swimming pool overlooking the lake and a solarium with magnificent views of the Borromean Islands. Its private beach and moorings offer summer water sports such as water-skiing and parasailing, and motorboats can be rented for trips to the islands directly from the hotel's pier.
